FOUND.—On St. Clair street, a folding key, evidently belonging to the door of some store. Call at this office and get it.

Mr. Will C. Bedford, of the Forks of Elkhorn precinct, leads the farmers of the county this spring. He has thirty acres of corn planted that has sprouted and is beginning to come through the ground.

The protracted meeting at the Christian Church this week has developed a marked interest. There have been large congregations and twelve additions to the Church. The meetings will continue next week.

Mr. Adams, President of the Union Pacific Railroad, passed through the city Monday afternoon, in a private car supplied with sleeping, sitting and dining apartments, on his way from New York to New Orleans over the C. & O. Road.

A number of Mountaineers have arrived in this city with rafts of saw-logs and report the river above filled with them on the way down. So the saw-mills will soon be supplied with timber enough to run them all summer.

Tol. Paxton, a young man about 20 years of age, from the Farmdale neighborhood, was tried Tuesday afternoon on a warrant of lunacy and found to be insane. He was taken to Lexington Wednesday.

Those enterprising gentlemen, Messrs. Crutcher & Starks, of the great White Hall Clothing House, on yesterday sold Dr. J. I. Lighthall, a handsome $150 silk velvet suit of clothes. When the doctor gets it on his diamonds will be more dazzling than ever.

The base ball season will be opened in this city next Saturday. The first game will be played at Capital Park that day between the Lexington and Frankfort nines of the Inter-State League.

Messrs Wells and Schultnecht will be remembered as the splendid battery of last year's Capital nine, Messrs. Goodloe Hammond, Frank Buttiner, and Shinkle were also members of that club last season, and all of them first class players. The other four are new men here, but have the reputation of being good players. Mr. Frank Buttiner is the only one who lives here, Mr. Goodloe Hammond lives in Henry county, and all the balance are Louisville boys. The whole nine is expected to be here on Monday to go into training. In the meantime the new grounds on Holmes street are being gotten in readiness as rapidly as possible.

Below we give a schedule of the games to be played here during the season:

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS ARE OFFERED IN THE WAY of fine pictures of all styles and descriptions. Why will the people of Frankfort send to the city for work when they can be accommodated at home. Oct. 25-tf.

Mr. Otis W. Snyder, the wide awake Lexington jeweler, comes to the front in this issue with an advertisement every one should read. He means business, and will sell you anything in his line at the lowest figures. If you go to Lexington call and see him.

Mr. Jas. H. Graham broke ground Monday morning for a handsome two-story brick residence on the lot he recently purchased from Judge W. P. D. Bush, on Washington street. The work will be done under the supervision of Mr. Gus Shaefer, and of course will be executed in the best possible manner.

Just after the storm of Friday night of last week, several young men were returning to their homes in South Frankfort, and when they reached the corner of Shelby and Cross streets they found the sidewalk overflowed to the depth of six or eight inches with water from the gutter, in passing around the pool they heard something fluttering in the water, which, by the aid of the flashes of lightning, they discovered to be a wild duck. They at once set to work to catch it, and after a lively chase of a few minutes, in which two or three of them got a good wetting by tumbling down in the water, one of the party, Mr. Frank Graham, succeeded in capturing it. It proved to be a blue-winged Teal, and is supposed to have been beaten down by the hail in attempting to fly over the city during the storm.

R. C. Church's Reply to "Record."

Editor Roundabout:

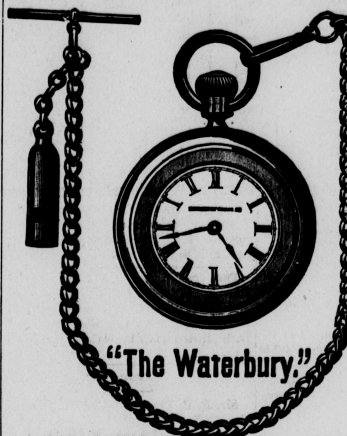

In your paper of last week some one signing himself "Record" charges that "I" as a Congressman voted in favor of a proposition to exempt all property in Frankfort from taxation for county purposes, except to the extent of ten cents on the hundred dollars." There is not one word in the record of the proceedings of the Council to show that I voted for it. This is the same falsehood that was circulated through the county by handbills and which I denounced in a handbill as infamous falsehood. I never voted for or favored such a proposition and the charge that "I did" is false and published for the purpose of deceiving the people and thereby injuring me in the race for Representative. It is not surprising that the manufacturers of these lies are ashamed to sign their names to them.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 25, 1885.

Rev. G. F. Bagby will deliver the annual commencement sermon at Clinton College, in Hickman county.

The Courier-Journal of last Sunday got off something very much like an old cut of Chas. J. Guitteau and tried to make its readers believe it was a likeness of Gen. Green Clay Smith.

A protracted meeting will be begun at the Southern Presbyterian Church on Friday evening next, May 1st. The pastor, Rev. Robt. E. Caldwell, will be assisted by Rev. Dr. E. O. Guerrant, of Mt. Sterling.

Two colored girls, Mary Eliza Dudley and Walter Woolfolk, went to the post-office several days ago, picked out a call box that was well filled with mail, and, while there was a rush just after the opening of the morning mail, called for the mail in that box. The clerk, without thinking gave them the mail, which consisted of a package of silk floss and a letter. They divided it between them, one taking the letter and the other the package. As soon as the theft was discovered Deputy U. S. Marshal Con. McCarty was notified and soon had them locked up. They were tried Thursday morning before Commissioner Ford and released. These girls are but about fifteen years of age and are two of those who preferred the foul charge against Mr. A. C. Wood several weeks since.

A CROWNING TRIUMPH.

The Unequaled Entertainment Given by Cole's Colossal Shows.

W. W. Cole's Colossal Shows are coming, and will exhibit at Frankfort Tuesday, May 5. That Mr. Cole has the greatest show now on the road is frankly admitted by both the press and public. The surpassing excellence of his entertainments, which exceed in extent and variety of interesting and novel features anything heretofore presented in the circus line, is thoroughly attested. The exhibitions given under a mammoth canvas are unique in character and abounding in startling feats, comprising over sixty distinct acts, performed in succession in the rings and upon the elevated stage. The old-time circus features, such as riding, tumbling, leaping, etc., are retained, to which are added such novel and astonishing attractions as aerial bicycling, performing Arabs, Turkish acrobats, Mexicans and Spaniards, Mlle. Ames, the Human Fly, who walks head downward upon a polished plane of wood, sixty feet above the ground; grand roller skating carnival, a clown elephant and a performing white hippopotamus from the historic Nile; an equine wonder in the shape of the horse Blondin, that has reached the zenith of brute intelligence by learning to walk a tight-rope stretched twenty feet above the ground. A decidedly interesting feature in the natural history department is the bovine curiosity—a living, healthy cow, with two distinct and perfectly formed heads, each with its complement of horns, eyes, ears, and mouth. This feature alone is a study for naturalists. Many cages of wild animals, and numerous trained animals, occupy the menagerie tent. A better or more pleasing show could not be got together, and the popular verdict places W. W. Cole at the head of the procession as the greatest showman of the country.

Hen. George R. Wendling will deliver a series of lectures at the Opera House in this city, beginning on Thursday evening, April 30th, and continuing three evenings. His subject for the evening of the 30th will be "Beyond;" for May 1st "Voltaire," while for the evening of May 2d his subject has not as yet been announced. As a lecturer Mr. Wendling has few equals, his reputation being world wide, and should be greeted with large audiences.

Having opened my ice cream saloon for the season, I would respectfully invite the ladies and gentlemen of the city to give me a call. Will keep constantly on hand the nicest ice cream and sherbet. J. WEITZEL, JR.

Frankfort Council, No. 7, Royal Templars of Temperance, will meet at the photograph gallery of Mr. H. G. Mittern on Monday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired as there will be an initiation of a candidate.

Rev. Geo. W. Riggan, D. D., a prominent minister in the Baptist Church and pastor of the Forks of Elkhorn Church, died at his home near Louisville on Saturday morning, after a painful illness with meningitis.

A brilliant youth remarked Tuesday night, while witnessing the operations of the Indian doctor and enjoying the music of his band, that it was very strange that a man who apparently cured so little for money as Dr. Lighthall should be willing to sell his life for ten cents. He has since died suddenly.

Our regular Bridgeport letter came to hand as usual this week, but before it could be put in type was blown out of an open window into the street and lost. We regret the accident exceedingly as our correspondent at that place seldom fails to send in a readable letter.

Col. Thos B Ford received on Thursday the following response to a letter of inquiry as to the probable time at which the Government building would be completed:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
OFFICE OF SUPERVISOR NO ARCHITECT.
 April 14th, 1885.
 Mr. Thomas B. Ford, Clerk, District and Circuit Court, Frankfort, Ky:
 SIR: Yours of the 10th inst. is received.

Every effort will be made to complete the Federal building at Frankfort, Ky., at the earliest possible date, and it is hoped that the work will be entirely finished by September next.

Very respectfully,
M. E. BELL,
Superintending Architect.

Mr. John T. Waters wants his friends to remember that he is still in the race for Jailer, and will be in the lead at the finish. It.

An Equine Wonder.

To show the extent to which the horse is susceptible of training, it is only necessary to visit W. W. Cole's colossal shows and watch the horse Blondin in his unparalleled feat of walking a tight-rope stretched twenty feet above the ground. Every body that sees it declares it a marvel.

As a Councilman, I Made Purchases for the City. Approved my Own Accounts, and Received the Pay.

Editor Roundabout:

Your correspondent, in speaking of Mr. Church as a representative in the City Council of Frankfort, failed to give one act of his that would entitle him to a seat in the Legislature. The writer took a look through the record, and found many things that affirmed the truth of Mr. Church's capacity as a business man.

No friend ever looks up a candidate's record to condemn it. That always arises from a search by those opposed to him. This fact ought to be patent to every one. An official's acts are public property. The records make them such, and they alone speak the truth, no matter who may say otherwise. Accounts were presented to the Council of Frankfort by Mr. Church while he was a member of the body, allowed and paid by warrant drawn in his favor on the City Treasurer. Every account against the Fire Department is approved by himself. They can be seen at the Clerk's office. He cannot deny his own signature.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Under this head will be found items amounting in all to a little over two thousand dollars. These were all paid to Mr. R. C. Church and all of them are approved by him.

WATER DEPARTMENT.

This account includes items amounting to more than seven hundred dollars. Thus we find a purchasing agent for a municipality having the accounts made out in his own name, approving the same as correct, and securing the money for them is a trustee for the dear people. At said time an ordinance was in force and provided that no Councilman should become interested in any contract with the City whilst in office, the making of which was connected with his official duty during his continuance in office; yet his name is attached to all the accounts.

"TRUTH"

Antioch.

Ruth, the infant child of Frank and Laura Moore, was buried at Antioch last Sunday evening.

Mr. Henry Spalding says the thunder scared his clock so bad that it stopped running. Was it Henry or the clock that was scared?

Messrs. Boone and Duncan were caught out in the storm Friday night and had to unhitch their horses from the wagon and let them take care of themselves, while they took refuge in Mr. Geo. Roach's house.

A Sunday-school was organized at Antioch last Sunday with Bro Joe Roberts as Superintendent. Now will the parents come forward and try and make the school a success? "Where there's a will there's a way." Do your duty.

Our neighborhood was visited last Friday night by a heavy hail storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning that was awful but sublime. The rain that followed was also a very hard one and damaged the newly plowed ground to some extent. The hail was the largest that we remember to have ever seen.

Mr. Hiram Penn, accompanied by Mrs. Hurst, while on their way home from Frankfort one day last week, came near having a very serious accident. The horse attached to the wagon became unruly and backed the wagon through the fence at Mr. Roach's, throwing Mr. Penn out and bruising his face very much. Mrs. H. was fortunately not in the wagon at the time.

Jett.

W. T. B. South was in this neighborhood last Thursday.

Elder Thornberry, of Indiana, visited "Excelsior" last Tuesday.

Mr. Hiram Berry's fine mare dropped a colt last Tuesday by Onward.

Farmers are now busy plowing up their wheat for corn. Oats have nearly all been sown.

Two of Mr. Thos. Bedford's thorough bred Bates heifers dropped calves last week by Duke of Barrington. They are worth $250 apiece.

In the case in the Woods, not in equity, of Green Taylor versus Charles Minor, the jury said: Uncle Charlie, you stay thar in that house.

The conductors and brakemen say that Jett is doing more business than any station between Louisville and Lexington, with the exception of Frankfort, in regard to freight.
